Cable News INDEPENDENCE FOR PHILIPPINES

[Associated Press Cable]
STAUNTON, Virginia, December 27.—An exceedingly startling announcement was made here late today as to the stand which will be taken by President-elect Wilson regarding the future of the Philippine Islands and the Filipinos.
Following a discussion between the President-elect and Representative Jones, of the house committee on insular affairs, it is stated that Governor Wilson favors a provisional government for the Philippines and complete independence within eight years.

Over-Night Wireless To the Advertiser

A Durazzo dispatch to The London Times of December 23, says: "After four days of fighting in the district between the Dalschi, ten miles north of Alessio, the Turks were driven out of the Neutral Zone on Friday. They lost several hundred killed and wounded, while the Serbian losses are said to have amounted to 200."

A Greek steamer has brought to Durazzo great quantities of war stores and twelve guns from Salonica for Servians at Alessio. That Turkey will refuse to pay any pecuniary indemnity to bring about peace in the Balkan war is regarded as certain in London today. It is reported that all the envoys received minute and detailed instructions concerning exactly what recession from the original demand they are allowed to make. Dispatches received today from Sofia say that Bulgaria is actively preparing to resume hostilities against Turkey, and state that youths not ordinarily liable to military service until 1914, were being conscripted, and regular troops kept in readiness to resume hostilities.

Determined that the plans of the Panama Canal fortifications shall not become the property of possible foreign military advisers, Col. Goethals, chairman of the Canal commission, has resorted to the order to exclude photographers from the vicinity of the works going up at Torpet Maruaria Island, and the islands in Panama Bay.

The storm which has ravaged the English Channel for the last few days has caused serious loss of life and property on the French coast. A sailing vessel was driven ashore today on the Island of Brehat, off the Brittany coast, and a torpedo boat has been sent from Brest to bring off the survivors of the crew. Many fishing vessels have been lost with their crews at various points along the north and northwestern coasts of France.

Wireless reports today state that the United Fruit Company's steamer Turrialba, which ran on a reef off Egg Harbor, New York, recently in a blinding blizzard, was safely floated by tugs and is expected to arrive at New York tonight.

With the declaration that the United States should raise all its sugar, the department of agriculture today issued an appeal to the American farmer to go in for the cultivation of the sugar beet. There are 2,000,000 short tons of beets now imported annually, says the department, which should be raised at home.

Persistent reports that King George is suffering from a severe attack of influenza were emphatically denied today by His Majesty's private secretary.

Secretary John Heydler, of the National League, left today for Aiken, South Carolina, where he will assist President Johnson, of the American League, and President Dreyfus, of the Pittsburgh National League Club, to draft the schedules for the big league baseball season for 1913. Although April 10 has been announced as the opening date for both leagues, the full schedules will not be made public until the middle of February, when the National and American Leagues will have their schedule ratification meetings in New York.

Testifying in New York today before the committee of aldermen investigating alleged police graft, Police Commissioner Waldo defied the probers to force him to disclose the records of his department unless he wished to.

Asked why he hampered the special examiner's investigation of police departments, Waldo said: "I do not propose to let a lot of youngsters go through the records and tear them to pieces. The whole matter was started merely to create a sensation."

A son was born yesterday to Prince August William, the fourth son of the Emperor, and Princess Augusta William, who was Princess Alexandra Victoria, of Schleswig-Holstein. Prince William and the Princess were married October 22, 1908, and this is the first child of the union.

J. R. Keene, who has not been in good health for a long time, is reported today in a worse condition than at any time since he returned from abroad several months ago. Nothing definite was given out as to the nature of the well known horseman's illness, but it was admitted that he was sick at his apartments in a hotel and was unable to visit his country home on Long Island.

A wireless message received at Colon, Panama, today from the battleship Arkansas, which has on board President Taft and his party returning to the United States after a visit to the Canal Zone, stated: "All on board are well."

After waiting to hear from the jury in the dynamite cases, Judge Anderson, of Indianapolis, adjourned court a three o'clock this afternoon until eight-thirty o'clock tomorrow morning, it appearing improbable that a verdict would be rendered until then.

By a phenomena rise of 105 points, the shares of the Standard Oil Company increased the par value of the stock on Wall Street $15,750,000 today. The Standard Oil Company is capitalized at $15,000,000.

The Pacific Mail liner Korea sailed from San Francisco for the Far East at one o'clock this afternoon. Aboard were 150 cabin passengers and 290 in the steerage.

Among the passengers for Honolulu were the Misses B. and D. Hartwell, daughters of the late Chief Justice Hartwell.

Attempting to dynamite the home of his sweetheart, a daughter of Charles F. Beck, of Klamath Falls, Oregon, George Cowan practically destroyed the building and suffered injuries from which he died early today, following an operation. Both his arms were amputated and the remains of his eyes were taken out. No one in the house was injured.

Five thousand dollars' worth of opium was seized on the steamer Mexican in San Francisco last night. The seizure was made on advance information received by Collector Stratton some time ago from a Mexican official at Salina Cruz. Since the vessel left Mexican ports she has made a trip to Honolulu.

The authorities of Port Moresby received news today of a barbaric massacre in Papua of the people of practically an entire village, some distance from the capital. The massacre, which is reported as prompted by a desire for revenge, was committed by Lemba natives and was carried out while the Lembaese were passing through Maguri on their way to the village.

The grand jury has returned an indictment for murder against Joseph Jonas, a second-hand dealer, in San Francisco, who is charged with killing his aged mother at her home, November 26. The woman was found tied with a rope and a rag gag in her mouth.

Determined to serve a subpoena on William Rockefeller to appear before the money trust investigation committee, Sergeant-at-arms Riddell of the house of representatives, and two deputies arrived in New York today to remain until they reached the millionaire. It is believed that Rockefeller is hiding in the snowbound forests of his private reserve in the Adirondack Mountains.

A FOLLOWER OF INFLUENZA.

An attack of influenza is often followed by a persistent cough, which to many proves a great annoyance. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been extensively used and with good success for the relief and cure of his cough. Many cases have been cured after other well known remedies had failed.
